Notes and News

DUANE WOOD, former principal of the Aleppo Township High School, Greene County, has accepted a position as science teacher in the Hyattsville, Maryland, High School. Mr. Wood had taught in the Aleppo Township school thirteen years and had served as principal during seven of these years. Bartley Rutan of Cameron, West Virginia, will take Mr. Wood's place for the remainder of the term.

J. W. BEATTIE, faculty adviser of The Mirror, Palmer High School, Palmerton, was honored for "outstanding service to the Columbia Scholastic Press Association" by the award of a gold key at the organization's annual convention in New York City in March. Mr. Beattie is now in the U. S. Army and is in training at Fort Knox, Kentucky. Another winner announced at the convention was Barbara Brown, 16-year-old student of Philadelphia, who won top honors and a $100 war bond for writing the best editorial on "Why Buy War Bonds?" in a nation-wide contest sponsored by the U. S. Treasury Department.

THOMAS H. FORD, superintendent of schools in Reading and treasurer of the School Waste Paper Fund, reports that 129¼ tons of paper were collected from the schools in the city and county on February 22. A total of $1,582.10 was received for the paper. Checks are to be forwarded the participating schools for the amount due, and the monies are to be placed in school activities funds in accordance with the request of the Defense Council of Reading and Berks County.

JOSEPH MILLER, director of guidance of the Wilkes-Barre public schools, contributed an article to the March issue of Instructor, entitled "Why Children Misbehave."

MARY JANE YOUNG, supervisor of music of Coopersburg and Lower Milford school, directed the operetta, "Tulip Time," which was presented to a capacity audience on March 31.

RUTH FEDDER, Bucks County school psychologist, is serving as chairman of an evaluation committee of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Middle Atlantic States and Maryland. Dr. Fedder, with the assistance of 25 other prominent educators, is conducting the evaluation of the Little Flower Catholic High School of Philadelphia. The Little Flower Catholic High School has an enrolment of over 4,000 girls.

J. M. BONEBRAKE, history instructor in Waynesboro High School, has been appointed research and statistical adviser in the State Department of Public Instruction. He started in his new position on April 15.

ALLEN D. PATTERSON, director of teacher education and placement at the State Teachers College, Lock Haven, has been granted a leave of absence for the duration to accept a position as acting chairman of the appointments division at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio.

CATHARINE E. LOBACH, chairman of Latin at Abington Senior High School, has just been elected representative to the American Classical League from the Pennsylvania State Association of Classical Teachers. Miss Lobach has traveled extensively in the United States, Europe, Canada, and Mexico. She came to Abington from Honesdale High School in Wayne County. She has been program chairman of the high school Parent-Teacher Association for a number of years.

LOIS M. CLARK, adviser, Early Childhood and Elementary Education, Department of Public Instruction, has been elected president of the Department of Rural Education of the National Education Association. For the past six years Miss Clark has been a member of the Department of Public Instruction. Prior to that time she served as a professor of education in the State Teachers College, West Chester. Miss Clark has for several years been interested in rural education, and has had published in professional magazines several articles on rural education.

WHETHER you go to the city or country . . . mountains or seashore . . . you will enjoy your summer vacation more with T.P.U. protection. For T.P.U.'s P-H (Peerless-Hospital) Certificate pays generous benefits in case of sickness or accident—during vacation time as well as during the school year. The P-H pays $25.00 a week (beginning the 8th day) for home confinement. It pays $37.50 if you are confined to a hospital (including first week). And P-H protection costs so little . . . only a few cents a day. Find out how much you get with P-H protection . . . mail the coupon today.

ENJOY t.p.u. PROTECTION

TEACHERS PROTECTIVE UNION
101 T. P. U. Bldg., Lancaster, Pa.

Please send me complete details about P-H year 'round protection. I understand there is no obligation.
